5. DESIGNATED BROKER: Every partnership shall designate a general partner to be the designated broker for the partnership. That broker applicant must submit his/her application and fee or "Notice of Change" form and fee(s) along with this application for the partnership. When the designated broker applicant and the partnership have complied with all requirements of the license law, the Commission shall issue a license to the partnership, which shall bear the name of the appointed partner as the designated broker of the partnership. 6. ERRORS & OMISSIONS INSURANCE: Idaho Law requires that actively licensed business entities obtain and maintain Real Estate Errors & Omissions (E&O) Insurance as a precondition to licensure, and that no entity may engage in practice of real estate without insurance. Failure to obtain and maintain insurance will result in the immediate inactivation of the license, and will also subject the designated broker to disciplinary action, which could include suspension or revocation of the license and imposition of a fine. Applicants are required to obtain a Certificate of Insurance, signed by an authorized agent or employee of the insurance provider, which must be made available for inspection upon request by the Commission.

This business entity has obtained E&O insurance ☐ YES ☐ NO

7. FEES: $100 for the Partnership, the appropriate fee for the designated broker (see section 5.c.), and $15 for each licensee (attach list of names) affected by the change. All such licenses must be attached to this application and new licenses will be issued. (Because of rising costs associated with issuing a refund, it is the policy of the Idaho Real Estate Commission (IREC) to refund overpayments of under $25 only if requested in writing within 30 days of IREC receipt of the overpayment. Overpayments of $25 or more will be automatically refunded to the licensee. There will be a $15 fee assessed for each check returned to the Idaho Real Estate Commission for insufficient funds.)

The Partnership certifies that the answers appearing hereon and on all attachments are true and correct; and further certifies that it agrees to conduct its business in accordance with the real estate laws and rules governing real estate practice in Idaho.
